

KOREAN EXPLORER:

Seoul to Jeju & Beyond

Visit iconic landmarks like Gyeongbokgung Palace and Bukchon Hanok Village, then venture to the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) for a glimpse into Korea's divided past. Continue to Jeju Island for its natural wonders and Busan for its coastal charm.

TAILOR-MADE ITINERARY | 11 Days/10 Nights

Days 1 – 2: Seoul

Journey through Seoul's rich history and vibrant culture. Start at Gyeongbokgung Palace (closed on Tuesdays), the grandest of Seoul's five palaces, where you will marvel at intricate architecture and royal heritage.

Day 3: Demilitarised Zone (DMZ) > Seoul

Discover the profound history of Korea starting at the Demilitarised Zone (DMZ). It is a significant remnant of the Cold War and the only border of its kind in the world. Afterwards, you will return to Seoul to visit the National Museum of Korea.

Days 4 – 5: Seoul > Jeju Island

Upon your arrival, you will explore the natural and cultural wonders of the island. Next, delve into Korea's rich heritage at Seongeup Folk Village, nestled at the base of Halla Mountain. Your journey also includes a stop at the Haenyeo Museum, dedicated to the celebrated female divers of Jeju. Spend time admiring Jeju's untouched beauty and dramatic coastline.

Days 6 – 7: Jeju Island > Busan

Discover Busan's coastal charm with a visit to Haedong Yonggungsa Temple, uniquely perched along the shoreline. Visit Haeundae Beach, bustling with life and renowned for hosting vibrant cultural events.

Days 8 – 11: Gyeongju > Seoul

Embark on a journey through the rich history of the Silla Kingdom and learn more about their legacy as you visit historical landmarks and museums. Return to Seoul where your journey ends.
