THE PHILIPPINES

Tailor-made journeys

The Philippines is an archipelago of over 7,000 islands with beautiful beaches, deep green rice fields, friendly locals and cuisine - a unique blend of Malay, Spanish, and Chinese influences. From the bustling capital Manila, steeped in Spanish colonial history, to the vibrant streets of Cebu, the Philippines offers an array of experiences. Escape to the idyllic beaches and thrilling watersports of Palawan and Siargao, or marvel at the enchanting Chocolate Hills and the unique landscapes of Bohol. See our tailor-made itineraries for a glimpse of this inspiring destination.

WHEN TO GO

The dry season from November to April is a great time to travel, but bear in mind temperatures are highest in March and April. The wet season from May to October offers hot sunny days with occasional rain, but with fewer crowds. Whenever you go, expect warm weather, but be prepared for anything as rain, wind and temperatures can be unpredictable!

EXPERIENCES

Whether you're seeking more time in nature or simply a peaceful retreat, the Philippines has the perfect blend of experiences. We highly recommend exploring its rich history by strolling through charming colonial cities, admiring Spanish-era cathedrals, and discovering hidden gems in local markets. This slow-paced destination can be tailor-made with a variety of activities to suit you.

PHILIPPINES ISLAND EXPLORER

12 Days / 11 Nights

On this unforgettable journey through the captivating beauty of the Philippines begin in Cebu, where warm hospitality welcomes you. Immerse in the rich culinary heritage with a bamboo cooking class. Fly to Siargao for stunning landscapes and thrilling adventures at Magpupungko and Sugba Lagoon.

Explore Bohol's countryside and enjoy a magical firefly boat tour. Conclude in Cebu's Highlands, where historical landmarks and natural wonders await, offering a perfect finale to your unforgettable Philippine odyssey.
